

Press Release

March 25, 2009

Conneaut Lake Area Historical Society is launching its new Web page at conneautlakehistory.com.

The site has a new home page and additional information, including historical information as well as a gift shop with Pay Pal available for easy shopping.

It includes various information about the society, its museum as well as special links about historical information, including cemeteries, Conneaut Lake Park, Liberty the Second, military information, churches and more. It also includes messages from some board members and information about upcoming events.